Bloomington Robbery leads to Multi-Jurisdictional Pursuit and Arrest

On today's date at 6:15 am, a male subject approached an adult female in the 8100 Block of W. 102nd Street, and threatened her with a weapon he was not displaying. After pushing the victim to the ground, the subject drove away in her 2015 GMC Terrain. The victim was not injured in the assault. Bloomington Police responded to the scene and area looking for the vehicle. With the aid of On-Star, the vehicle was located on Hwy 169 just south of the Bloomington. Officers responded to that area and were given frequent updates to the stolen vehicles location. The stolen vehicle was eventually sighted near the intersection of County Road's 18 and 42 in Prior Lake.

Bloomington Police attempted a traffic stop but the vehicle fled eastbound towards Burnsville before going back west into Prior Lake. With the assistance from State Patrol, Burnsville PD, Savage PD, Prior Lake PD, Shakopee PD, and Scott County Sheriff's Department the pursuit terminated after the suspect crashed near Pike Lake Trail and Carriage Hills Pkwy in Prior Lake.

Alexander Kawika Gryskiewicz, age 29, from Norwood Young America was arrested and is currently being held on several felony charges including assault, robbery, and fleeing police.
